

Celebrate Free Speech Week! October 16-20, 2017

Local Events Sponsored by:
Department of Communication
Department of Journalism and Media Studies

Tuesday, October 17, 8-9 p.m. SCI 323

RU Debate Union will be debating
"Resolution: Confederate Statues Should be Removed from Public Spaces."

Wednesday, October 18, 4:30-5:30 p.m. Scholarly Communication
Center (4th Floor, Alexander Library)

"What Is 'Hate Speech'? : Definitions, Laws, Solutions"
Speakers: David Greenberg, Ph.D. & Susan Keith, Ph.D.

Thursday, October 19, 8-8:30 p.m. SCI 203
Viewing party of award-winning YouTube student videos
"What Free Speech Means To Me"

(Create a YouTube video that is 1 minute or less and send the URL with your full name and RUID to brian.householder@rutgers.edu. Gift cards of $100, $50 and $25 will be awards to the top 3 videos. Videos must be submitted by 5 p.m. on October 18. Open to all students)

What is Free Speech Week?

An annual, non-partisan national event celebrating the value of freedom of speech.

