

RUTGERS, THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW JERSEY

2021

CONVOCATION

School of Communication and Information

May 2021

Congratulations to all of our graduates!

SC&I takes great pride in the 1,300 undergraduate, master's, and doctoral students who are earning degrees during this year.

The Spring 2021 Graduation Convocation of Rutgers' School of Communication and Information is being held virtually as are all other graduation ceremonies of the university. Graduates have received links to the website and videos, and those will remain available for viewing through 2021. Although the ceremonies are virtual, they include individual recognition of each and every graduate.

We have mailed home a small graduation gift to each student earning a degree.

Congratulations to our graduates! We are celebrating with you virtually via social media and other means. Please share your stories and thoughts with us via our hashtag #SCIConvocation2021 and on our Facebook and Instagram accounts.

Graduates, we are so proud of you, and wish you much health, happiness, and success as you move to the next phase of your lives.

About the School of Communication and Information

The School of Communication and Information is a dynamic center of learning at the heart of Rutgers-New Brunswick on the College Avenue campus. While some of our academic programs were first offered in the early 1900s, the school itself was founded in 1982, and its research and teaching focus on communication, social and new media, library and information science, journalism and media studies, and information technology. The school's competitive and renowned programs prepare students for engaged careers available today and developing for tomorrow.

The school is home to three academic departments—Communication, Journalism and Media Studies, and Library and Information Science. We offer undergraduate programs in Communication, Information Technology and Informatics, and Journalism and Media Studies, all leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree; a minor in Digital Communication, Information, and Media and a minor in Gender and Media; master's programs in Communication and Media, in Health Communication and Information, and in Information (accredited by the American Library Association); an interdisciplinary Ph.D. program in Communication, Information, and Media; and continuing education programs. Over 2,500 students are enrolled in our degree programs, and many thousands more Rutgers students take elective classes with us. SC&I has offices, classrooms, and laboratories in New Brunswick at 4 Huntington Street, the adjacent DeWitt House at 185 College Avenue, the SC&I Annex and Friedrich House at 192 College Avenue, Huntington House at 184 College Avenue, Richardson House at 1 Richardson Street, and a suite within Alexander Library at 169 College Avenue. Computer, multimedia, broadcast, information organization, and communication interaction laboratories and facilities are available for the use of its students and faculty.

Distinguished faculty of the school have been named International Communication Association fellows, Knight News Innovation Fellows at Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism, Whiting Foundation Public Engagement fellow, a British Psychological Society fellow, and a resident fellow at the Leon Levy Center for Biography; appointed a Martin Luther King, Jr. Visiting Professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology; included in the 100 Brilliant Women in AI Ethics trademarked list; winners of a Peabody Award, numerous National Communication Association awards, the American Association of School Librarians Distinguished Service Award, the ALA Isadore Gilbert Mudge Award, the APHA Betty J. Cleckley Minority Issues Research Award (honorable mention), Baldrige Foundation Award for Leadership Excellence (inaugural winner), Association of Internet Researchers book award, Marilyn Sternberg Award; appointed to the American Library Association Council and the Botswana-Rutgers Mahube Partnership for Transformation; invited to participate in the Geneva Dialogue; elected as officers of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, the Association for Library and Information Science Education, and the Society of American Historians; and are recipients of various Rutgers University awards for teaching, research, and service, among other honors, including the Jeff Tellis Outstanding Advisor Award by the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System, and a Loyal Son of Rutgers Award, among other honors.

Our outstanding students have received awards such as the Emerging Researcher Award by the Social Informatics Special Interest Group at ASIS&T (SIG SI), several International Communication Association awards, the 2020 Paul Robeson Renaissance Award, the 2021 iSchools Doctoral Dissertation Award (runner up), the National Communication Association Donald P. Cushman Memorial Award, an American Association of University Women American Dissertation Fellowship, Johnson & Johnson fellowships, and an Association of Research Libraries Diversity Scholar. Hundreds are inductees into their disciplinary honors societies.

On the Banks of the Old Raritan
(The Rutgers Alma Mater)

"On the Banks" has been sung at Rutgers since 1873

Verse I

From far and near we came to Rutgers,
And resolved to learn all that we can;
 And so we settled down,
 In that noisy college town,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

Chorus

On the banks of the old Raritan, my friends,
Where old Rutgers ever more shall stand,
 For has she not stood
 Since the time of the flood,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

Verse V

Then sing aloud to Alma Mater,
And keep the scarlet in the van;
 For with her motto high,
 Rutgers' name shall never die,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

Chorus

On the banks of the old Raritan, my friends,
Where old Rutgers ever more shall stand,
 For has she not stood
 Since the time of the flood,
On the banks of the old Raritan.
